33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction.
 You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

"YOU YOURSELVES KNOW VERY WELL THAT THE DAY OF THE LORD WILL COME LIKE A THIEF AT NIGHT"
1 Thessalonians 5,2

While doing hospital ministry, I brought the Eucharist to a businessman who was recovering from heart surgery. He was on the phone when I entered the room, so he waved me away. As I left, I heard him say he was being released the next day. I later learned that he died that evening. Those of us who have lost a loved one to a sudden, unexpected death quickly become aware of the fragility of life. That can be a good or bad thing depending on what we do with that awareness. If it leads to too much fear and anxiety, it is obviously destructive. But if it continues to alter our understanding of what is truly important in life, it can be transformative. Although we will never live them out perfectly, hopefully the gospel values of justice, mercy and forgiveness take on more urgency when we think of the end of our life.

No Shopping Mitten Tree

Every year our parish sponsors children, who have been abused or neglected and are in foster care or under protective supervision, to help fill their Christmas wishes.

It's almost the season and our CCW mitten tree is being replaced this year by a "No" shopping mitten tree. Envelopes will be distributed after the masses for the next few weeks for your generous contribution for the purchase of the Christmas Gifts for the children in our Tri-county area.

This is under the guidance of the partnership for strong families. Thank you in advance for helping make the wishes come true for these children at this magic season of Christmas.

There will be a Christmas gift box in the lobby for you to return your envelope no later than November 15th.

Below are ways that you can contribute to St. Johns, Holy Cross, St. Andrew's and Christ the Good Shepherd.

Online giving: Go to our website at stjhc.org. The first page you land on is St. John's page. There is a donate here button on the bottom left hand side. Just click on that and it will take you to the donation screen. If you are with Holy Cross go here, <https://www.stjhc.org/holy-cross-mission-church> and scroll to the bottom left and you will find a donate button here. If you are St. Andrew parishioner go to <https://www.stjhc.org/st-andrews-mission-church> and it's the same thing, go to the bottom left side where it says donate here and click on it.

Bill pay: Use your own bank pay feature. This service is usually free and there is no cost to the parish. Set up St. John's, Holy Cross, St. Andrew's as payee and use your envelope number if you know it as the account number. The address to send the check to is below.

Mail: You may mail your offertory by putting in plain envelope and addressing it to St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church PO Box 863, Chiefland FL. 32644. Be sure to specify on the check or money order which church you are
